This printing of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy's Inaugural Address was conceived as a graphic arts tribute to a great American and is limited to 500 copies. It is executed on the last remaining sheets of handmade Riverstoke paper that was originally made for Harvard University and which will never be made again.

Concept and Design
Ben Rosen Associates

Type Composition
The Composing Room, Inc.

Paper Supplier
Andrews/Nelson/Whitehead, Inc.

Lithography and Finishing
Normac Printing Corp.